

Phil Wagner, Regional Director of Ducks Unlimited, congratulates newly organized leaders on becoming part of Ducks Unlimited. Group leadership is (l to r) Mark Connolly, Publicity, John Prince, Chairman, Courtland Nelson, Dinners, and

Ducks Unlimited Forms County Chapter

HEBER CITY—(KDP) A banquet last Saturday evening at Wasatch Mountain State Park was the scene for the formation

Small crowd assembles on a brisk morning Thursday for a board cutting ceremony at the new Coast-to-Coast store in Heber City. Manager Tom Latimer cuts through board, center.

Coast to Coast Celebrates Grand Opening

Prince, John C. DDS, PC

Family & Preventive Dental Care All Dental Services

Including newest enamel bonding and lamine veneer cosmetic techniques nitrous oxide and aural sedation

New patients welcome with special emphasis on children

160 S. 100 W., Heber

654-2822

membership stands at 400,000.

According to the local officers the banquet Saturday was exceptionally well attended, with over 100 people present. Over seventy-five items were either raffled or sold at auction in order to raise funds.

Local officers and banquet organizers are John Prince, Chairman; Cortland Nelson, Dinner; Norm Holmes, Treasurer; Mark Connolly, Publicity; and Edwin Grose, Auction and Raffle. They were assisted by John Gleave and Mike Guymon.

Fog Cau

MIDWAY—Two accidents occurred just minutes apart on Midway Lane Thursday, Jan. 10, 1985 which sent four youth to hospital for treatment of minor injuries.

<sup>b</sup>
5 Dec 1985

Dr. John and Beverly Prince and family spent Thanksgiving in St. George. John visited his grandmother and took her for a sight seeing tour. The children enjoyed visiting with cousins.

The family visited Beverly's folks Grant and Edith Whitehead.
They arrived back home Saturday evening.

basket, but time ran out on them,
and the game ended 70-69,

Wasatch

Coach Bill Farr was naturally pleased with the evening's work.
"The press is what turned the rick," he said. "You could see